v. * 2:06-CV-304-MHT
ALABAMA DOC INMATE "T-HOP", et al., * (WO)

Defendant. *

ORDER AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Plaintiff, Francis Grandinetti [“Grandinetti”], an inmate incarcerated at the Tallahatchi County Correctional Facility located in Tutwiler, Mississippi, filed this 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action on April 6, 2006. Within his complaint, Grandinetti requests that he be allowed to proceed in forma pauperis. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Pursuant to the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), a prisoner is not allowed to bring a civil action or proceed on appeal in forma pauperis if he "has, on 3 or more occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury."¹

¹In Rivera v. Allin, 144 F.3d 719, 731 (11th Cir. 1998), the Court determined that the "three strikes" provision of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g), which requires frequent filer prisoner indigents to prepay the entire filing fee before federal courts may consider their cases and appeals, "does not violate the First Amendment right

DISCUSSION

The court takes judicial notice of the U.S. Party/Case Index, PACER Service Center, available at <http://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov>. A review of PACER records establish that Plaintiff, while incarcerated or detained, has on at least three occasions had civil actions and appeals dismissed as frivolous, malicious, for failure to state a claim and/or for asserting claims against defendants who were immune from suit pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The cases on which the court relies in finding a violation of § 1915(g) include, but are not limited to: (1) Grandinetti v. U.S. Marshals Serv., Civil Action No. 00-00489 SOM-KSC (D. Haw. 2001) (complaint dismissed for failure to state a claim); (2) Grandinetti v. Bobby Ross Group, Inc., Civil Action No. 96-00117 (E.D. Tex 1999) (complaint dismissed as frivolous and for failure to state a claim); (3) Grandinetti v. Iranon, et al., Civil Action No. 96-00101 (E.D. Tex 1998) (complaint dismissed as frivolous and for failure to state a claim); and (4) Grandinetti v. Iranon, et al., Civil Action No. 96-00118 (E.D. Tex. 1998) (complaint dismissed as frivolous).

In the instant civil action, Plaintiff complains about various conditions of confinement which he alleges are unconstitutional. The claims before this court do not allege nor in any way indicate that Plaintiff “is under imminent danger of serious physical injury” as is required to meet the imminent danger exception to the application of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Medberry v. Butler, 185 F.3d 1189 (11th Cir. 1999).

to access the courts; the separation of judicial and legislative powers; the Fifth Amendment right to due process of law; or the Fourteenth Amendment right to equal protection, as incorporated through the Fifth Amendment.”

Based on the foregoing, the court concludes that Plaintiff's request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is due to be denied and this case dismissed without prejudice for Plaintiff's failure to pay the requisite $250.00 filing fee upon the initiation of this cause of action. Dupree v. Palmer, 284 F.3d 1234, 1236 (11th Cir. 2002) (emphasis in original) ("[T]he proper procedure is for the district court to dismiss the complaint without prejudice when it denies the prisoner leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to the provisions of § 1915(g)" because the prisoner "must pay the filing fee at the time he initiates the suit.").

CONCLUSION

In light of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis filed by Plaintiff on April 5, 2006 (Doc. No. 1) is DENIED.

It is the RECOMMENDATION of the Magistrate Judge that this case be DISMISSED without prejudice for Plaintiff's failure to pay the full filing fee upon the initiation of this case.

It is further

ORDERED that the parties shall file any objections to this Recommendation on or before April 26, 2006. Any objections filed must specifically identify the findings in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation to which the party is objecting. Frivolous, conclusive or general objections will not be considered by the District Court. The parties are advised that this Recommendation is not a final order of the court and, therefore, it is not appealable.

Failure to file written objections to the proposed findings and advisements in the Magistrate Judge's Recommendation shall bar the party from a de novo determination by the District Court of issues covered in the Recommendation and shall bar the party from attacking on appeal factual findings in the Recommendation accepted or adopted by the District Court except upon grounds of plain error or manifest injustice. Nettles v. Wainwright, 677 F.2d 404 (5th Cir. 1982). See Stein v. Reynolds Securities, Inc., 667 F.2d 33 (11th Cir. 1982). See also Bonner v. City of Prichard, 661 F.2d 1206 (11th Cir. 1981, en banc), adopting as binding precedent all of the decisions of the former Fifth Circuit handed down prior to the close of business on September 30, 1981.

Done, this 13th day of April 2006.
